

COURSE CREDIT POLICY AND PROCEDURE (INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS)

Purpose

The purpose of this policy and procedure is to outline Raymond International College's (RIC's) approach to ensuring students are provided with credit for units of competency and/or modules where they are evidenced by:

- AQF certification documentation issued by another RTO of AQF authorised issuing organisation such as a university
- Authenticated VET transcripts issued by the Registrar.

Course credit may also be awarded for RPL. The process for RPL is included in Recognition of Prior Learning Policy and Procedure.

This complies with Clause 1.12 and 3.5 of the Standards and the National Code of Practice for Providers of Education and Training to Overseas Students 2018 Standard 2.

Definitions

AQF means Australian Qualifications Framework which can be accessed at <http://www.aqf.edu.au/>

Certification document means a Testamur, Statement of Attainment or Record of Results

Credit means recognition of the previous studies a student has completed for the purpose of reducing the units or modules required to be completed in their currently enrolled program

Course means any nationally recognized qualification, unit of competency, skill set or short course in which a student is enrolled with the RTO

A Confirmation of Enrolment letter (CoE) is a document, provided electronically, which is issued by the registered provider to intending overseas students and which must accompany their application for a student visa. It confirms the overseas student's eligibility to enroll in the particular course of the registered provider.¹

Record of Results is a record of all the units and modules completed and their results that lead to an AQF qualification or VET Accredited Course being issued and is issued alongside an AQF qualification or Statement of Attainment

Registrar means the Student Identifiers Registrar

PRISMS means Provider Registration and International Students Management System

RPL means Recognition of Prior Learning

SRTOs means the Standards for RTOs 2015 – refer definition of 'Standards'

Standards means the Standards for Registered Training Organizations (RTOs) 2015 of the VET Quality Framework which can be accessed from www.asqa.gov.au

Statement of Attainment confirms that one or more nationally recognized units or modules has been achieved by an individual but is only used where there has been partial completion of a qualification or VET accredited course

Testamur is an official certification document that confirms that an AQF qualification has been awarded to an individual. This may be called an 'award', 'qualification' 'parchment', or 'certificate'

Policy

1. Application for Credit

- All students will be offered the opportunity to apply for credit for previously completed studies. Students can apply for Credit by completing a Credit Application Form and providing relevant supporting documents, including certified copies of transcripts. This may include VET transcripts or extracts issued by the Student Identifiers Registrar.
- All evidence provided as part of an application for Credit will be authenticated by Raymond International College by contacting the issuing organization to confirm the details provided on the document are valid. In the case of transcripts issued by the USI Registrar, documents will be authenticated through the USI Registry System.
- Raymond International College will not require any student to repeat any unit or module which they have already been assessed as Competent unless there is a license condition or regulatory requirement that requires this.
- There is no fee applicable for Credit transfer applications.

2. Assessing Credit

- Where a student provides authenticated evidence of units or modules issued by another RTO or authorized issuing organization, Raymond International College will provide Credit for that unit or module where it is a unit listed in the student's course of enrolment with Raymond International College.
- Where evidence has been provided of previous study being completed at another RTO, university or other authorized issuing organization, but the unit or module is not listed in the student's course of enrolment with Raymond International College, an analysis as to the equivalence of the study completed with the units in the student's enrolment with Raymond International College will be undertaken.

3. Credit application outcomes

- Students will be advised of the outcome of their Credit application in writing and will be required to provide an acceptance of the credit awarded.

- Where there are significant Credits granted, this may result in a reduction of the Course fees, which will be advised at the same time.
- Where Credit has been granted after the acceptance of a place in a course or on commencement of studies and will affect the duration of studies, this will be recorded in PRISMS and a new Confirmation of Enrolment Letter (CoE) created.
- The result of Credit Transfer will be recorded for any relevant units on the student management system. A record of acceptance of the credit must be kept for International Students for a minimum of two years.
- Students may appeal the decisions made about their Credit application by following the Complaints and Appeals Policy & Procedure.

Procedures

1. Issuing Credit

Procedure	Responsibility
A. Applications for Credit <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students will be offered the opportunity to apply for Credit as part of the enrolment process. • To apply for credit, a student should fill in the Credit Application Form and supply certified copies of their relevant transcripts. • Applications that do not include certified documents should be returned to the student, unless original copies are certified by an RTO staff member. 	Student Administration Officer
B. Review Credit application <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Transcripts should be reviewed for their authenticity. Consider: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Does the transcript include the expected information on an AQF Certification document such as name of institution, code, full name of student, name and codes of units completed? – Has the copy been certified? • Are the units/modules previously studied relevant to the student’s current enrolment? If not, the Credit Application does not need to be progressed further and the student can be advised that they were not granted any Credits. • Where units are relevant, contact the issuing institutions to confirm 	Training Manager/ Trainer/Assessor

the authenticity of the transcripts. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Where there is a direct unit match by code and title, a Credit can be issued. • Where previously completed studies are deemed equivalent by the Training Package to a unit in the student’s enrolment, a Credit can also be granted for those relevant units. • Where previously completed studies are relevant/ similar to a unit in the student’s enrolment, the content of the completed units/modules must be analysed to identify whether the outcomes are equivalent to any units/modules in the student’s course. This may be assessed by reviewing the content of the unit/module which may be accessed through the university or the student may be asked to provide further information if required. • Where equivalent outcomes are identified, a Credit can be issued. The reason for the Credits issued should be documented on the Credit Application.
C. Determine effect of granting credit and notify student of outcome <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Once credits have been determined, notify the student of the outcome of their Credit Application in writing. • Ensure student’s acceptance of credit is filed. • Where Credits have been granted, reducing the amount of training and assessment needing to be provided, review the cost of the course and advise the student of the reduced course fees. • Where Credit has been granted, identify the reduction in the course duration based on the amount of credit awarded and advise the student of the reduced duration. • If RIC grants the overseas student credit that reduces the overseas student’s course length, RIC must: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. inform the student of the reduced course duration following granting of credit and ensure the confirmation of enrolment (CoE) is issued only for the reduced duration of the course ii. report any change in course duration in PRISMS if credit is granted after the overseas visa is granted 	Training Manager/ Trainer/Assessor

D.
